

nusha

Biography :

A woman at the top of her game is the unique Romanian female artist Nusha, who is involved into the techno scene since 2007. She has experimented and refined her musical taste throughout the years by sharing stages with well-known techno legends and playing some of the greatest techno festivals across the world. She is experienced by experience and developed her own signature sound which never seems to fail!

Her sets are powerful, energetic and standing still is not an option. After you have entered the dancefloor, be ready for a solidarity environment where positive vibes are being shared between ravers.

In the studio she is just as passionate. Nusha creates her own unique style, blending acid techno beats with hard kicks and hypnotic melodies. Once in a while she will give you her own vocal statements like, "Chaos" , "Addiction" & "Serenity".

She is regularly to be found on Autektone, FeChrome and Orange Records, which are a perfect match.

Nusha is moving towards the next chapter in her dynamic career, creating a positive chaos on the dancefloors around the globe.

If you wanna dance till your shoes cry, you must check NUSHA!