

Thee Dian

Thee Dian is a young singer-songwriter, musician and producer who grew up between Paris and Dakar. Born into one of the finest families of musicians, her father Idrissa Diop, is a singer and percussionist, who played and wrote for Carlos Santana. Her mother was a backing singer for Manu Dibango and Youssou N'dour and her spiritual uncles are the legendary Ray Lema and Salif Keita.

At the age of 3, she was already learning piano at the Suzuki School, which she continued to study at the Conservatoire de Paris. From age 10 to 14, she was a member of the Maîtrise de Paris choir, where she sang on the soundtrack of a Michel Legrand film, and as soloist for Dogora at Salle Pleyel.

Crystal Murray felt in love with Thee Dian's universe and she created Spin Desire label for her, where she has collaborated with Crystal, LeDiouck, Calamity, Loubenski and many more. She also appears on the cover of Christine and the Queens' latest album «Redcar», with whom she collaborated on his live tour.

Diane is a multi-disciplinary artist who merges with the stage. Selected by the FGO Barbara (parisian venue) to rehearse and work on her technique, she went on to perform on several shared stages and supported for Crystal Murray, Live, LeDiouck... During her last live performance at Konbini (key online french outlet) in April, her charisma and original and infinitely unsettling voice totally won over the audience with their hypnotic power.

The world of fashion is obviously captivated by the artist's energy and what revolves around her. Thierry Mugler, Jean-Paul Gaultier and Mac Cosmetics have all approached her for her talents as a model and performer.

So, which galaxy is Thee Dian in? FKA Twigs, Lady Gaga, Sade, Nina Simone? Whatever galaxy she chooses - Venus and Saturn both bold and impressive - this new star remains free, lively and timeless.
